Experience

Working independently as andebobandy designs, I'm a one stop shop for small business in need of logos & identity packages, websites & advertising materials as well as for individuals looking for personal stationary, wedding invitations, & blogs. As a regular freelance designer for Tuckshop, a highly acclaimed motion graphics design firm in NYC, I've had the opportunity to work on much larger projects, including national commercials, pitches & animatics for advertising agencies & corporate presentations for companies like Sephora & most recently for The Associated Press.

Technical Skills

Illustrator, Photoshop, AfterEffects, GoLive, Acrobat, PowerPoint, Word, Excel, Flash, HTML, CSS, PC & Mac
